Introductions / Réamhrá

I am delighted to welcome this 26th edition of the Earagail Arts Festival. Founded by Donegal County Council in 1989, the Festival continues to act as an annual, high profile focus in the county for the very best of contemporary and traditional, local and visiting Irish and international arts. The Council is mindful of the considerable support and advice afforded to the Festival by The Arts Council, Fáilte Ireland and Údarás na Gaeltachta over the years, and we look forward to a continuation and a deepening of this partnership in the years ahead. As has been the case from the outset, this year's Festival has benefited from the input of a rich vein of artistic partners which together showcase the vibrancy, resilience, depth of imagination and community focus that characterises the cultural sector in the county today. I wish the Festival the very best this year and I look forward to many more to come.

Mr. Seamus Neely, Donegal County Manager

Tá lúcháir orm fáilte a chur roimh 26ú Féile Ealaíne an Earagail. Ba í Comhairle Contae Dhún na nGall a bhunaigh an Fhéile i 1989, agus gach bliain tarraingíonn sí aird an phobail ar ealaíona den scoth, idir ealaíona comhaimseartha agus ealaíona traidisiúnta, agus ar ealaíontóirí áitiúla, Éireannacha agus idirnáisiúnta. Is maith a thuigeann an Chomhairle an tacaíocht iontach atá tugtha ag an Chomhairle Ealaíon, ag Fáilte Ireland agus ag Údarás na Gaeltachta don Fhéile thar na blianta, agus tá muid ag dréim go leanfaidh an comhoibriú sin ar aghaidh agus go dtiocfaidh fás air sna blianta atá amach romhainn. Is cinnte go gcuirfidh clár spreagúil imeachtaí Fhéile Ealaíne an Earagail beocht sa tslí seo, ar imeachtaí iad a mbainfidh bunadh na háite agus turasóirí araon sult astu. Arís i mbliana, tá ionchur faighte ag an Fhéile ó réimse leathan compháirtithe i saol na n-ealaíon, agus tá seo i ndiaidh dul chun tairbhe don Fhéile, mar a rinne ón tús. Is léargas é seo ar an bheogacht, ar an teacht aniar, ar an tsamhlaíocht dhomhain agus ar an bhéim ar an phobal a bhaineann le hearnáil an chultúir sa chontae sa lá atá inniu ann. Guím gach rath ar an Fhéile i mbliana agus tá mé ag súil go mór leis na féilte a bheidh ann sa toadhcháif.

An tUasal Seamus Neely,
Bainisteoir Contae Dhún na nGall

Welcome to a festival born and bred on the North West route of the Wild Atlantic Way, Ireland's newest road odyssey. A festival that knows where the locals go but also where award winning, ground-breaking international and national music, theatre, and visual arts finds its feet in venues all along the Atlantic seaboard of County Donegal. In this 2014 programme, we present new drama that explores the changing patterns of social history in rural Ireland; new site specific theatre, street arts and spectacle; specially commissioned exposés of native spoken word and a host of international music collaborations that bring together local and international players from as far afield as Japan, Egypt, Spain and the USA. Come and immerse yourself in the real culture of Donegal.

Paul Brown, Festival Director

Tá fáilte romhat chuig féile a rugadh agus a tógadh ar chuid an Iarthuaiscirt de Shlí an Atlantaigh Fhiáin, an odaisé bóthair is úire in Éirinn. Féile a bhfuil a fhios aici cá háit a dtéann muintir na háite don spraoi ach féile fosta ina mbíonn ceol, amharclannaíocht agus amharcealaíona a bhfuil neart duaiseanna buaite acu agus atá ar thús cadhnaíochta, agus iad le feiceáil in ionaid fud fad chósta Atlantaigh Chontae Dhún na nGall. Seo cuid de na nithe atá ar chlár na bliana 2014: drámaí nua ina ndíreofar ar an athrú atá ar phatrúin na staire sóisialta faoin tuath in Éirinn; amharclannaíocht, ealaíona sráide agus radhairc úrnua a bheidh curtha in oiriúint dá suíomh; léargais nua-choimisiúnaithe ar an teanga labhartha dhúchasach; agus go leor den chomhoibriú ceoil a mbeidh ceoltóirí áitiúla agus ceoltóirí idirnáisiúnta as tiortha i bhfad i gcéin mar an tSeapáin, an Éigipt, an Spáinn agus Stáit Aontaithe Mheiriceá páirteach ann. Bí linn agus cuir tú féin ar maos i bhfíorchultúr Dhún na nGall.

Fiesta

SATURDAY 12TH JULY – MONDAY 14TH JULY, 8PM • €15 / €12
LETTERKENNY, AN GRIANÁN THEATRE

A brand new play bringing together all your Fiesta memories. Below the red neon sign, the doors of the Fiesta Ballroom first opened on October 5th 1962. The music of the Capitol Showband played out to two thousand people at ten bob a head. They came from across Donegal and further afield, thumbing lifts, rattling on Swilly buses or crammed into Austins and Hillmans. The air was thick with the scent of Brylcreem and hairspray, cigarette smoke and McDaid's minerals. The Fiesta was one of the finest dancehalls in Ireland, where the Clipper Carlton, the Miami Showband and the Mighty Avons played fast and slow sets through the years. The ballroom was a magnet for the dancers, chancers and lovers who jived and slow-danced across the floor, where egg and onion sandwiches, tan-brown tea and 'courting' out the back kept them going from 10pm until 2am. The Fiesta was the place to meet, twist and shake and fall in love. This July, Fiesta celebrates those magical times, from 1962 until the roller disco years. Come along for an evening of music, of memories and of the stories that made the Fiesta so unique.

I Do

TUESDAY 15TH – FRIDAY 18TH JULY • 6.30PM & 8.45PM
TWO SHOWS PER EVENING • €15/€12
LETTERKENNY, CLANREE HOTEL

Ever wanted to be a fly on the wall in the build up to a wedding?

The ceremony begins in ten minutes. The Best Man is practicing his speech. The Bridesmaids are squeezing the bride into her dress. Mum and Dad are seeing each other for the first time in years. Grandma is struggling to dress her husband whilst the bride's brother is getting frisky with the Maid of Honour. Meanwhile, the Groom is frozen...

Don your button-hole, down a glass of bubbly and join Dante or Die's eleven-strong cast to voyeuristically peek into the lives of a wedding party as the big moment looms nearer. Divided into six groups, you will discover the twists and turns in the plot in a different order, seeing the same ten minutes replayed in each of the rooms, where you will experience that moment in time from each character's point of view.

With six rooms in the same hotel and six interlinked stories, some sad, some funny and some shocking, who knows what you might discover.

Contains nudity and scenes of an adult nature.

AMHARCLANN AN GRIANÁN / AN GRIANÁN THEATRE

Dráma dhá ghníomh atá anseo a scríobh Antaine Ó Flaithearta, agus bhí sé ar cheann de bheagán drámaí nuascríofa i nGaeilge a léiríodh ar ardán Amharclann na Mainistreach le fiche bliain anuas. Ré nua na teilifíse sa Ghaeltacht atá i gceist sa dráma agus tá sé ag plé le dúchas, teanga, teaghlach agus Bruce Springsteen, i measc go leor rudaí eile. Tá cáil mhór ar Aisteoirí Ghaoth Dobhair le breis agus 70 bliain anuas as ucht chaighdeán a gcuid léirithe agus go háirithe a gcuid aisteoireachta. Is iomaí ball den chompántas a bhfuil clú bainte amach acu ar TG4 anois. Seo an ceathrú huair d'Aisteoirí Ghaoth Dobhair a bheith ar an ardán sa Ghrianán le linn Fhéile Ealaíne an Earagail.

Aisteoirí Ghaoth Dobhair presents a two act play, written by Antoine Ó Flatharta, a playwright whose work has been produced at the Peacock Theatre, Project Arts Centre, The Taibhdhearc, and by the Dublin Theatre Festival. Antoine was writer in residence with Team Theatre Company in 1989-1990 and has written radio and television plays for RTE and BBC. An Solas Dearg was first produced by the Abbey Theatre in 1995, directed by Deirdre Friel and is one of the few newly written plays in Irish to be produced by the Abbey in the last 20 years. Originally set in Connemara in the age of telecommunications, the play deals with the implications of the burgeoning communications industry on community, language and relationships. It has been adapted for the local audience in the Donegal dialect by Sean Ó Maolagáin, a long time member of Aisteoirí Ghaoth Dobhair.

SUNDAY 20TH JULY, 8PM • €10/ €12
LETTERKENNY / AN GRIANÁN THEATRE

The multi-award winning Fishamble: The New Play Company has been touring passionate and emotive new theatrical work to our doorsteps for numerous years. Premiered at the Dublin Fringe Festival, 'Swing' is a delightful new show that explores the blossoming of a friendship even in hard economic times. From the eternal optimist recovering from his business failure; the dance teachers who have fallen out of step; the young Cork girl looking for love; the country man who can't dance without counting; the teenage lovebirds... in their sixties; to the woman who needs to start doo-de-doo-ing again, the one thing they all have in common is that they are here to dance. Featuring Janet Moran (The Butcher Boy, Breakfast on Pluto) and Steve Blount (Breakfast on Pluto, Game of Thrones), Swing is all about living as well as you can and giving it a lash... with rock and roll music. It'll make you want to dance!

Written by Steve Blount, Peter Daly, Gavin Kostick and Janet Moran and directed by Peter Daly. Produced by Marketa Dowling. Lighting Design by Mark Galione.

WINNER OF BEWLEY'S LITTLE GEM AWARD AT DUBLIN FRINGE FESTIVAL 2013.

Chaos

THURSDAY 24TH & FRIDAY 25TH JULY, 8PM • €12 / €10
LETTERKENNY / AN GRIANÁN THEATRE

A chaotic roller-coaster of a show, these charming brothers try to hold it together as they dance and bicker through a riotous hour of physical comedy.

Cork performers Cian Kinsella and Cormac Mohally combine comedic theatrics with dance and acrobatics. Taking on the persona of celebrity-obsessed but socially impaired brothers these boys can move, they can lift, and they can make you laugh. A show with heart and muscle!

Lords of Strut formed in 2008 and have since toured 18 countries and have won numerous awards for their unique blend of comedy, theatre and circus. 'Chaos' is the company's third production and sees a return of the characters Famous Seamus and Sean-tastic as they try to change the world through dance. Fluorescent hi-tops, spandex unitards, gravity defying acrobatics and kick-ass dance routines, all to a soundtrack of guilty pleasures. A must for comedy fans, dance fans and budding divas alike.

Tá Bláth suite i ndomhan gan dathanna ná plandaí. Tagann buachaill ar leabhar draíochta, tugann sé abhaile faoi rún é agus feiceann sé bláthanna den chéad uair. Tar éis dó paicéad síolta a aimsiú i seansiopa, tugann sé faoi eachtra chun beocht a chur sa bhláth. Is léiriú gan teanga é Bláth a chuirfidh draíocht ar an lucht féachana nuair a rachaidh siad isteach i ndomhan déanta go hiomlán as páipéar. Is í Maeve Clancy, amharcealaíontóir, a dhear agus a rinne an seit, agus tá ceol nuachumtha ag Colm Mac Con Iomaire (The Frames) don léiriú seo. Baineann Branar leas as puipéadóireacht, téatar na réad agus ceol aoibhinn chun scéal draíochta a insint. Níl amhras ar bith ach go rachaidh an léiriú seo i bhfeidhm gach duine.

Bláth / The Flower is set in a world that has decided colour and plants are no longer needed. A boy finds a magical book and sees flowers for the first time. He then discovers a packet of flower seeds in a junk shop and must learn how to bring the flower to life. Bláth is based on the children's book The Flower by John Light & Lisa Evans. Designed by the artist Maeve Clancy with original music by Colm Mac Con Iomaire (The Frames), Bláth is a non verbal show that will enchant audiences as they enter a world made entirely of paper. Combining puppetry, object theatre and original score, Bláth promises to be a show that will be unforgettable.

Little Howard is the world's only live interactive animation. He's won so many awards and fantastic reviews and he's only just celebrated his 6th birthday (for the tenth year in a row)! He's also a published author and has done lots of television stuff.

Yet Little Howard is true to his roots and live theatre is still his first love. But life is tough in showbiz; Little Howard's big new act keeps going wrong, Roger The Pigeon has spent all their money on cookie cutters, his comedy counterpart Big Howard has been diagnosed as being clinically unfunny and there's a slug in the backstage toilet. And it's about to get worse: a sinister figure arrives and Big Howard and Little Howard have to put on the best show of their lives to keep themselves out of jail! Following the success of their TV show 'Little Howard's Big Question' (CBBC) real human Big Howard and animated six-year-old Little Howard are bringing their unique family comedy show to An Grianán Theatre.

With interactive stand-up, live animation on stage and lots of jokes and songs this really is a show that all the family can enjoy

A favourite walk of the locals is the old Light Gauge Railway walk from Creeslough to Falcarragh Station. Beginning at Doe Cemetery, you will be stunned by the local scenery and introduced to historical views by local walking expert and your guide, Seamus Doohan accompanied by authentic local culture. As you walk the track try to imagine what it was like to be sitting on the old Muc Dubh, as it rattled its way westwards to its next destination. You will begin your walk just after gatehouse number 12, with Muckish Mountain on your left. Spot the miner’s path which is still visibly etched into the shoulder of this majestic mountain and discover Lough Agher on your right as you head towards gatehouse Number 13 and on to Falcarragh Station. Your day will continue into the evening with “Oíche Airneáil” at An tSean-Bheairic, Falcarragh, hosting the best of local traditional music and dance. This is a Grade 3 walk, suitable for walkers of moderate fitness. For safety information, including what equipment you will require, visit www.walkingdonegal.net/need-to-know/safety

Earagail Arts Festival in association with MPI presents

Sharon Shannon, Frances Black & Mary Coughlan plus The Henry Girls

SUNDAY 13TH JULY • 8PM • €27.50
LETTERKENNY, CLANREE HOTEL

At the very heart of Irish music are 3 of Ireland's most celebrated female performers, Sharon Shannon, Frances Black and Mary Coughlan. All 3 artists have been part of the history-making "A Woman's Heart" project and each is a prolific and award winning artist in their own right. Alongside Donegal's harmonic trio of sisters The Henry Girls, Earagail Arts Festival is proud to present a magical evening of shared tradition by some of the finest musicians in Ireland today.

Former member of The Waterboys, platinum-selling, multi-instrumentalist Sharon Shannon celebrates her 21st year in music this year by releasing her best of collection entitled 21. With a host of Number 1 albums and singles including the Steve Earle penned The Galway Girl (performed with Mundy), Sharon is the recipient of several industry honours including a Meteor Lifetime Achievement Award.

When Nanci Griffith called Frances Black "the sweetest voice of Ireland," she was paying tribute to someone who has been one of Ireland's best-loved and most enduring artists since the late 80s, with a string of best-selling albums, awards and other accolades behind her.

Mary Coughlan is the only singer these shores has produced to rival the greatest of European cabaret and American jazz club blues because of one thing: her voice. She is unique in blending the husky notes and iconic wit of Billie Holiday and Peggy Lee with the sardonic, bitter-sweet defiance and despair of the Piaf chanteuse.

The Henry Girls – Lorna, Joleen and Karen have firmly established themselves as one of Ireland's hottest new folk exports, with regular tours in the USA and Europe promoting their own brand of roots and traditional tinged Donegal music.

Emily Portman Trio

MONDAY 14TH JULY • 8PM • €15 / €12
LETTERKENNY, REGIONAL CULTURAL CENTRE

Emily Portman is the 2013 holder of the BBC Radio 2 Folk Award for Best Original Song; an accolade which reflects her power to lure listeners into a complex and darkly surreal netherworld, conjuring a dark and brooding realm. Her ethereal voice and the trio's enchanting harmonies belie a world of dark storytelling, cruel deeds and sordid city landscapes, part inspired by traditional balladry and part by rich literary sources, from the myth of Leda and the Swan to the magical realism of Angela Carter. The trio, featuring Emily, Lucy Farrell and Rachel Newton bewitches audiences with sirenic harmonies and haunting arrangements for harp, concertina, banjo, strings and saw.

Trad Tráthnóna

Zoë Conway & John McIntyre

DÉ MÁIRT 15 IÚIL / TUESDAY 15TH JULY, 8.30PM • €8
DÚN LÚICHE / DUNLEWEY,
IONAD COIS LOCHA / LAKESIDE CENTRE

Is ceoltóir eisceachtúil í Zoë Conway atá ar a suaimhneas ag seinm ceol traidisiúnta agus ceol clasaiceach araon. Tá sí i ndiaidh seinm ar ardáin ar fud na cruinne, mar cheoltóir aonair agus le ceoltóirí cáiliúla ar nós Riverdance, Damien Rice, Rodrigo y Gabriella, Nick Cave agus Lou Reed. In 2001, bhí an bua aici sa Chomórtas Uile-Éireann Fidléireachta (rannóg na sinsear).

Tá duais Irish Music Magazine don cheoltóir traidisiúnta mná ab fhearr buaite aici agus tá sí ar dhuine de na ceoltóirí atá luaite ar shiollabas ceoil na hArdeistiméireachta. Tá an-ráchairt uirthi mar theagascóir agus is minic í i mbun ceardlann agus léachtaí mar gheall ar sheinm an cheoil thraidisiúnta agus an cheoil chlasaiceach ar an veidhlín.

Thosaigh John McIntyre a ghairm mar ghiotáraí leictreach leis an bhanna indie The Revs. Chuir sin deis ar fáil dó seinm ar a lán ardán agus ag féilte cáiliúla, lena n-áirítear féilte Oxygen, Witness agus Slane in Éirinn, Feilte Reading agus Leeds sa Ríocht Aontaithe, Rockpalast agus Haldern sa Ghearmáin agus SXSW in Austin, Texas, i Stáit Aontaithe Meiriceá. Tá sé i ndiaidh obair a dhéanamh le go leor léiritheoirí cáiliúla agus anois tá ag léiriú agus ag seinm ceol rac, ceol traidisiúnta agus ceol clasaiceach. Dála Zoë, tá an-éagsúlacht i gcúlra ceoil John; tá sé i ndiaidh staidéar a dhéanamh ar an ghiotár clasaiceach agus, ó bhí sé an-óg, tá sé ar maos i gceol traidisiúnta oirdheisceart Dhún na nGall.

Irish fiddle player, Zoë Conway, is a prodigious talent, equally at home in both traditional Irish and classical styles. Zoë has performed across the globe, both as a solo artist and also playing with international acts such as Riverdance, Damien Rice, Rodrigo y Gabriella, Nick Cave and Lou Reed among others. She is a holder of the much coveted All-Ireland Senior Fiddle Champion title, winning the prestigious competition in 2001. She was voted Best Traditional Female of the Year in Irish Music Magazine and she is also a featured musician on the current Leaving Certificate music syllabus in Ireland. Zoë is increasingly in demand as a tutor, regularly giving workshops and lectures on the merits of classical and traditional music on the violin.

John McIntyre began his career as electric guitarist with Irish indie band, The Revs. Through this he has also known the privilege of performing on many famous stages and festivals including Oxygen, Witness and Slane in Ireland, Reading and Leeds in the UK, Rockpalast and Haldern in Germany, and SXSW in America. He has worked alongside many world renowned producers, and is now producing and recording in rock and roll, traditional and classical genres. With a similarly diverse background in music to Zoë, John studied classical guitar for many years, and from early childhood, he was immersed in the traditional music of (South West) Donegal.

Melting Pod Finale

Ralph Rolle and Selan plus guests

SUNDAY 20TH JULY · 8PM · €15/€12
CULDAFF, MCGRORY'S BACKROOM

The Melting Pod is a unique musical collaboration between musicians from two distinct musical disciplines and equally atypical localities. In this instance two of the most prolific and internationally recognized urban musicians from the USA – master percussionist Ralph Rolle (drummer with Nile Rodger's Chic) and multi-instrumentalist Selan (side musician and collaborator for Adele, Louie Vega and many others) – will work with musicians from the traditional Irish background to create a soundscape that will explore shared musical concepts, from RnB and Soul to Jazz and contemporary music. The resulting composition will form the basis of long-term future collaborations between young musicians from Donegal and the USA. This unique project will culminate in a very special collaborative finale on Sunday 20th July featuring Ralph and Selan in performance with Paul and Roisin Harrigan, whilst all events will be visually recorded for a forthcoming documentary film by leading director of photography Brendan Galvin. As part of the project and in advance of their public performance, a series of workshops and masterclasses will be hosted by Ralph Rolle and Selan on Wednesday 16th, Thursday 17th and Saturday 19th July 2014 at McGrorys. Please check the workshops section of the programme for more details.

The North Wind Blows

DÉARDAOIN 17 IÚIL / THURSDAY 17TH JULY, 8PM • €20
AN TEARMÓN / TERMON, ATTICA AUDIO

Tá iarthuaisceart na hÉireann tar éis cuid de na ceoltóirí is fear traidisiúnta agus comhaimseartha atá tagtha chun cinn sa tír a chur ar fáil agus a mhealladh, agus bíonn baicle úr ceoltóirí den scoth i gceist i ngach glúin. Chun an saibhreas iontach cultúrtha seo a cheiliúradh, tá an ceoltóir, craoltóir agus léiritheoir Philip King chun South Wind Blows, an clár a bhfuil moladh mór faighte aige, a thabhairt go Dún na nGall do chraoladh speisialta atá coimisiúnaithe ag RTÉ Raidió 1.

Beidh an t-imeacht ar siúl in ionad beag, stiúideoanna Attica Audio ar imeall Pháirc Náisiúnta Ghleann Bheatha, agus beidh éagsúlacht guthanna agus traidisiún i gceist sna seiteanna aonair ó Emma Ní Fhuaruisce agus Eve Murtagh, agus sa chomhoibriú nua ceolmhar idir Mairéad Ní Mhaonaigh ó Altan, Conchur White (Silences) agus Tommy McLaughlin (Villagers). Tiocfaidh an ceol agus na focail, i mBéarla agus i nGaeilge, le chéile ar bhealach draíochtúil san imeacht seo, agus ar na haíonna eile a bheidh páirteach ann beidh an file agus scríbhneoir Eoghan Mac Giolla Bhríde, leis an seinnteoir busúcaí Niall Hackett, an dordveidhleadóir agus cumadóir Neil Martin, an fidléir Dermot McLaughlin, agus fear an tí, Philip King, a mbeidh a sheanchairde as Scullion, Robbie Overson agus Sonny Condell, ag seinm ina chuideachta.

The North West of Ireland has produced and attracted some of the finest traditional and contemporary musicians to ever emerge from these shores, with each new generation heralding a whole new cohort of notable artists. To celebrate this rich cultural seam, artist, broadcaster and producer Philip King brings the much acclaimed South Wind Blows radio programme to the wilds of Donegal for a specially commissioned broadcast event for RTÉ Radio 1.

Hosted in the intimate surroundings of Attica Audio studios on the edge of Glenveagh National Park, this gathering of disparate musical voices and traditions will feature individual sets by Emma Ní Fhuaruisce and Eve Murtagh as well as a new collaboration between Altan's Mairéad Ní Mhaonaigh, Conchur White (Silences) and Villagers' Tommy McLaughlin. Bringing together a truly magical meeting of words and music in both Irish and English, this unique assembly of artists will include poet and writer Eoghan Mac Giolla Bhríde with bouzouki player Niall Hackett, alongside multi-disciplinary performances by cellist and composer Neil Martin, fiddle player Dermot McLaughlin and host Philip King, joined by long-time collaborators Robbie Overson and Sonny Condell of Scullion.

Julie Feeney

THURSDAY 17TH JULY · 8.30PM · €15
BALLYBOFEY, BALOR ARTS CENTRE

Composer, singer, orchestrator, songwriter and producer, Julie Feeney is a true artist with immense vision.

Her innovative, avant-garde approach, while rooted in classical music, straddles both the pop and theatrical worlds. Her unquestioningly original sound has won her acclaim on both sides of the Atlantic – most recently enjoying a sell-out 10 show run in New York City.

Her self-produced debut album '13 songs' won the Choice Music Prize for Irish album of the Year. Her second album 'Pages' was also nominated for a Choice award and featured in the Liberties Press '101 Irish Albums You Must Hear Before You Die' while her 3rd album 'Clocks' went straight to No.1 in the Irish Album Charts and was voted 'Album Of The Year' by the Irish Times.

Sharp witted, unpretentious and fiercely passionate, Julie Feeney is a genuine artist and a hugely enjoyable performer.

The official opening of the Through a Polish Lens exhibition is marked by a special concert featuring Polish artist El Grey.

Dreamy, atmospheric and intimate, filled with genuine passion and haunting melodies, the El Grey sound is an alternative blend of dream rock, acoustic minimalism, electronic, ambient, hip-hop and jazz.

Born in Gdansk, Poland and based in Bray, Co. Wicklow El Grey first emerged on the Dublin music scene in 2011. Her alternative genre-blending sound has earned her some notable success – highlights being appearances at Electric Picnic 2013 and a slot supporting her idols Polish band 'Hey' in Scala Club, London.

Compared to Portishead, Bjork, Tori Amos and Katie Melua, El Grey is an act that will give you goose bumps. A mature sound that will keep your mind intrigued and your ears alert. Stay tuned.

Non, je ne regrette rien: Tionscadal Piaf-Brel / The Piaf-Brel Project

DÉ DOMHNAIGH, 20 IÚIL / SUNDAY 20TH
8.30PM • €15/ €12
DOBHAR / DORE, IONAD NAOMH PÁDRAIG

Duine d'amhránaithe móra na Fraince ba ea Edith Piaf nó an Gealbhán Beag mar a thugtaí uirthi. Bhí saol corrach aici – deirtear gur rugadh ar chosán í – agus bhí cáilíocht chosrach ag baint lena glór cinn a chuirfeadh na clocha ag caoineadh. I measc na mórámhrán uaithi bhí 'La Vie en Rose' agus 'Non, je ne regrette rien.' Beilgeach ba ea Jacques Brel a chum amhráin a bhí fileata agus drámata araon. Bhí tionchar nach beag aige ar leithéidí David Bowie agus Leonard Cohen.

Edith Piaf was one of France's most beloved singers. Her singing reflected her tragic life, with her specialty being the poignant ballad. Jacque Brel composed and performed songs charged with poetry and drama. This show will present their work rendered into exquisite Irish by poet Liam Ó Muirthile. They will be performed by Hilary Bow – whose album Oneness was acclaimed by Eamon Carr as "one of the most captivating Irish albums of the year" – and Dominic Mac Giolla Bhríde, whose work has been praised as "pure magic, rich with mirth, mischief, and melancholy". Accompanying them will be Peter Roycroft on piano; Geoff Kirk on drums; and Neville Lloyd on double-bass. Designer Margaret Lonergan has created on-screen projections of the lyrics accompanied by images inspired by the songs.

Three of Ireland's resident musicians have combined to form a new, virtuosic trio – Treelan. This groundbreaking trio of percussionist Éamonn Cagney, Donegal native accordionist Martin Tourish, and Nigerian born guitarist Niwel Tsumbu extends beyond the boundaries of Irish traditional music, with African, Jazz and World rhythm influences, infused by a musical electricity, energy and passion that makes for an incredible live show. Recently featured on RTÉ Radio 1's Arena, Raidió na Gaeltachta and The Journal of Music in Ireland and sponsored by the Arts Council Deis award in late 2013, the trio completed an innovative project wherein their composition process was documented online for a week in a series of video blogs shot by videographer Colm Walsh. The public response to Treelan's online blog and subsequent Irish tour has been outstanding and this, their first welcome visit to Donegal, coincides with a new album of original music to be released in the summer of 2014.

An Grianán Theatre in association with Earagail Arts Festival presents

Lisa O'Neill

SATURDAY 26TH JULY • 8PM • €15 / €12
LETTERKENNY, AN GRIANÁN THEATRE

It's been an incredible year for Cavan's Lisa O'Neill. With a new album Same Cloth or Not she won over fans and critics alike. Her rich aged folk voice, melancholic melodies and brilliant lyrical wit marked her as a genuinely unique Irish artist. Her live shows became much talked about affairs with the audience welling up one moment and in stitches the next. Lisa toured Ireland and mainland Europe this year with Glen Hansard, supported David Gray on his Irish tour and James Yorkston on his UK tour.

"One of the most outstanding Irish albums of the year." – The Irish Times

Dublin Afrobeat Ensemble

SATURDAY 26TH JULY • 10PM • €10
LETTERKENNY, THE GREENROOM

Dublin Afrobeat Ensemble is a 14-strong international group of Afrobeat exponents from the four corners of the world. They are a musical crossroads made up of musicians that have washed up on our shores and share an ancestral understanding of the Underground Spiritual Game, playing a blend of free flow Afrobeat rhythms and heavy dance-floor Afro funk. The band was founded in 2012, when a group of Afrobeat enthusiast started meeting up regularly at down-town jam sessions in Dublin. From there, they began making plans to form a new collective that would combine their various musical interests with their particular world view, a fitting finale for the closing party of EAF 2014.

The Donegal Master Fiddlers

EAF 2014 Closing Concert

SUNDAY 27TH JULY • 8PM • €15 / €12
LETTERKENNY, AN GRIANÁN THEATRE

The Donegal Master Fiddlers gala concert is a celebration of the life and music of three of the county's greatest living traditional fiddlers – Vincent Campbell, Dinny McLaughlin and Danny Meehan. Each Master Fiddler will be introduced in turn by a younger renowned fiddler, Vincent Campbell by Martin Mc Ginley, Danny Meehan by Aiden O'Donnell and Dinny McLaughlin by Roisin Harrigan. This feast of traditional Irish music will also feature the Campbells (Vincent, his brother Jimmy and nephew Peter), Dinny McLaughlin's group and Fidil the new generation of Donegal fiddlers. The opening performance of this incredible night of music will come from an even younger generation of musicians drawn from the Ceol na Coille School of Irish Traditional Music.

 OILEAN ÁRAINN MHÓR / ARRANMORE ISLAND

Is féile bheag úrnua cheoil agus ealaíon é The Swell Festival atá dírithe ar an teaghlach agus a mbeidh aíonna éagsúla as Éirinn agus an Ríocht Aontaithe páirteach inti, agus meallfaidh sí cuairteoirí chuig Árainn Mhór álainn ar an 11/12/13 Iúil 2014. Beidh meascán de na gnéithe is fearr a bhaineann le féilte beaga agus de ghnéithe úrnua i gceist in Swell, agus tá sé mar sprioc aige cultúr Conallach an oileáin a chur chun cinn le linn trí lá de cheol, de scéalaíocht dhúchasach, d'fhillíocht agus de cheardlanna ceirde, i suíomh iontach a mbeidh radharc ann ar an Aigéan Atlantach agus ar na Trí Mic Ó gCorra. Tá eolas le fáil faoi phacáistí campála agus lóistín ar dchaighdeán ag swellfestival.com.

The Swell Festival is a newly-emerged small family friendly music and arts event that will play host to a variety of performers from Ireland and the UK, bringing visitors to the beautiful island of Arranmore on the 11/12/13 July 2014. Combining the best features of other small festivals with some new ones of its own, Swell has been established with a founding passion for promoting the island's own brand of Donegal culture providing 3 days of music alongside indigenous storytelling, poetry readings and craft workshops in view of the Atlantic landscape and under the guise of Na Trí Mic Ó gCorra – The Three Stags sea stacks. For a variety of camping or luxury accommodation packages please see swellfestival.com for more details.

Oíche Airneáil – An Evening of Traditional Music and Song

DÉ SATHAIRN, 12 IÚIL / SATURDAY 12TH JULY • 8PM
SAOR IN AISCE / FREE
AN FÁL CARRACH / FALCARRAGH, AN TSEAN-BHEAIRIC

Oíche Airneáil, ag a mbeidh ceol agus damhsa ó cheoltóirí agus aisteoirí na háite. Bí linn, glac páirt san imeacht nó bíodh cupán tae agat, go díreach, agus bain sult as an oíche bhreá airneáil seo sa Chrannóg sna Doirí Beaga. Ag toiseacht ar 8.00pm. Fáilte roimh achan duine, óg agus sean.

Oíche Airneáil is an old style informal evening where friends would gather together in front of a fire and sing songs from the heart, songs that tell a story of the old Irish tradition. Join us for an evening with local singers and musicians. Everyone is welcome, young and old, to take part or simply enjoy the beautiful music and an cupán tae.

Fóirsteanach do gach aoisghrúpa / Suitable for all ages

Here at the Falcarragh Visitor Centre, you can immerse yourself in the lives of our rural ancestors from Falcarragh and its surroundings. Falcarragh, a Gaeltacht region in Donegal, is a market town in the parish of Cloughaneely, which is located in Northwest Donegal on the N56 route, approximately 45km from Letterkenny.

Visit www.eaf.ie for full schedule of events

DÉ HAoine 11 – DÉ DOMHNAIGH 13 Iúil /
FRIDAY 11TH – SUNDAY 12TH JULY
TORY ISLAND - TORAIGH

Is féile taobh istigh d'fhéile í Féile Shoilse Thoraí, ar ceiliúradh í ar chultúr saibhir Thoraí, dún ársa na bhFomorach agus ceantar Bhalor na Súile Nimhe, agus an t-aon oileán ar chósta na hÉireann a bhfuil a rí féin aige sa lá atá inniu ann! Le cois ceol den scoith ó cheoltóirí áitiúla agus na seisiún gan choinne le linn na féile ar fad, réachtálfar an Cabaret Craiceáilte sa Chlub Sóisialta míchlúiteach sin, agus beidh rásaí curach ar siúl, turais mhara treoirithe, céilí mór, ceardlanna rince agus imeachtaí do pháistí.

A true festival within a festival, Féile Shoilse Thoraí highlights the rich culture of Tory Island, the ancient stronghold of the Formorians, the land of Balor of The Evil Eye and the only island off the coast of Ireland to retain its own King to this very day! Aside from the wealth of local musicians and impromptu sessions throughout the festival, Cabaret Craiceailte will lead the headline gigs at the infamous Social Club, whilst throughout the weekend the island will play host to the annual traditional curragh races, guided tours by sea, céilí mór, dancing workshops and children's entertainment.

THURSDAY 17TH JULY, BREWERY TOURS 5PM / 6.30PM • €10
CONCERT 8PM • €10
RATHMULLAN, KINNEGAR BREWERY / RATHMULLAN HOUSE

Rosguill musicians Sarah E Cullen and Declan McClafferty (In Their Thousands) duet for an evening of soulful roots acoustic music delivered with vocal harmonies. Country, jazz, traditional, bluegrass are all represented in a diverse set of clever cover versions and original compositions. Having first played music together at traditional sessions in rural pubs the pair then began playing some small sets and support slots.

Lorraine McCauley and The Borderlands

THURSDAY 24TH JULY, BREWERY TOURS 5PM / 6.30PM • €10
CONCERT 8PM • €10
RATHMULLAN, KINNEGAR BREWERY / RATHMULLAN HOUSE

Singer-songwriter Lorraine McCauley's voice draws you in with its ethereal expressive quality and even at its gentlest the strength in her voice is compelling, easily able to hold its own in the context of the endlessly fascinating and inventive soundscapes her band creates around her songs. Steeped in authenticity and left bank tendencies, Lorraine McCauley and The Borderlands bring a powerful new voice and perspective to modern folk and roots music.

GAOTH DOBHAIR / GWEEEDORE, ÁISLANN, GHAOTH DOBHAIR

Rugadh Colette Ní Gallchóir sna Cruacha Gorma i nDún na nGall blianta fada ó shin agus tá a saol caite aici leis an oideachas. Ainmníodh í tráth don ghradam Creative Arts in the Classroom agus tá meascán den oideachas agus den fhilíocht le fáil ina stíl theagascach. Is cainteoir dúchais í Colette a bhfuil B.Ed/ Diplóma aici san Oideachas Feabhais, BA i dTeanga agus i Litríocht na Gaeilge, agus tá dhá leabhar filíochta, Na Sióga i Lag na hAltóra agus Idir dhá Ghleann (Coiscéim), scríofa aici. Tá go leor dá saothar curtha i gcló agus le fáil i gcnusaigh, sa bhaile agus i gcéin. Ag an ócáid seo, beidh cnuasach úr á sheoladh ag Colette.

Colette Ní Gallchóir was born in the Bluestack mountains in Donegal and has dedicated her life to education. Nominated by Pushkin Writers in Schools for the Creative Arts in the Classroom, her didactic style combines education and poetry. A native Irish speaker, Colette holds a B.ED/Diploma in Remedial Ed, BA in Irish Language and Literature and has written two poetry books entitled Na Sióga i Lag na hAltóra and Idir dhá Ghleann (Coiscéim). She is widely published and anthologised both at home and abroad. On this occasion Colette will be launching her new collection through this beautiful opening recital.

Baineann na cnusaigh An Trodaí, Máthair an Fhiaigh agus Poll na mBabies le pobal agus le tírdhreach a ceantair dhúchais i gCorca Dhuibhne. Más draíochtúil ar an leathanach í is draíochtúla fós beo ar an stáitse í. Beidh an sárghiotáraí Steve Cooney ina teannta chun dánta sa léi a thionlacan. Creideann Gearóid Mac Lochlainn gur ealaín idir chorp agus ghutha atá sa chur i láthair agus thug an Irish Times

'performance poetry for the 21st century' ar an léamh a dhéanann sé. Ina theannta anocht beidh Mark Braidner ar an ghiotar.

Proinsias Mac a' Bhaird's poetry is marked by a natural ease of expression, lyricism and sheer fun. He is joined by acclaimed guitarist and singer Enda O'Reilly. Dairena Ní Chinnéide's poetry is an incantatory fusion of the modern and the ancient. She will be accompanied by guitar supremo Steve Cooney. Gearóid Mac Lochlainn's latest collection Criss-Cross Mo Chara pulses with musical themes and patterns, and he will be accompanied by ace blues guitarist Mark Braidner.

CHURCHILL, THE GLEBE HOUSE AND GALLERY

EXHIBITION OPENING SATURDAY 12TH JULY, 3PM WITH A SPECIAL PERFORMANCE BY THE JAPANESE KOCARINA
GROUP. EVERYONE WELCOME.

Patrick Scott (1921 – 2014) was born in Kilbrittain, Co Cork, and trained as an architect. He had his first art exhibition in 1941 with the White Stag Group. From 1945 he spent 15 years working with Michael Scott in the architectural practice of what became Scott Tallon Walker, where his innate talent as an artist and designer developed in unison. He became a leading graphic designer with the Signa Design Consultancy (set up in 1953 by Michael Scott and Louis le Brocqy), all the while continuing to test various ideas in his painting. On winning a National Prize at the Guggenheim International Award in 1960 and representing Ireland at the XXX Venice Biennale in the same year, Scott became a full-time artist. The selection at the Glebe concentrates on Scott's early works from the 1940s to the 70s. It features all the key phases in his artistic development from the relatively figurative work of the 40s to the abstraction of the 70s. It includes some of his earliest paintings with the White Stag Group, work from his Venice Biennale show, a selection of his Bog and Device series' from the early 60s and a selection of his abstract gold leaf paintings from the late 60s.

Mar chuid de théama Patrick Scott i mbliana, tá lúcháir ar an Ghailearaí bailiúchán Taylor Galleries, Baile Átha Cliath, de shaothar Patrick Scott (1921–2014), idir phriontaí, phictiúir agus saothair ar páipéar, a chur ar taispeáint. Tá saothair sa bhailiúchán a rinne Scott sna blianta tosaigh dá ghairmré nach bhfuil feicthe go poiblí ach go fíorannamh go dtí seo, le cois priontaí carbaraim ó na blianta 1974–2007. Cuireadh na saothair seo ar taispeáint sa Taylor Galleries níos luaithe i mbliana i gcomhthráth leis an dá mhórtaispeántas iardhearcacha a bhí ar siúl in IMMA agus VISUAL, Cheatharlach. Ag an oíche oscailte fosta, seolfar cnusach nua filíochta de chuid Colette Ní Ghallchóir, an file arb as na Cruacha Gorma ó dhúchas í.

As part of the Patrick Scott theme this year, An Gailearaí is delighted to present the Taylor Galleries, Dublin collection of prints, paintings and works on paper by renowned Irish artist Patrick Scott (1921–2014). The collection includes rarely-seen works from the early part of Scott's career alongside more recent carborundum prints ranging from 1974–2007.

The Taylor Galleries exhibited these works earlier this year to coincide with the major two-part retrospective exhibitions in IMMA and VISUAL, Carlow. Also at the opening night will be a launch of a new collection of poetry by poet Colette Ní Ghallchóir, originally from the Bluestack Mountains.

EXHIBITION OPENING SATURDAY 12TH JULY, 6PM
EVERYONE WELCOME

The Earagail Arts Festival is honoured to present the work of the celebrated Irish artist Patrick Scott as the centre piece of the 2014 visual arts programme. Patrick sadly died in February at the age of 93 on the eve of the opening of a major retrospective at IMMA. The RCC and the Glebe Gallery will present a selection of the work shown at VISUAL, Carlow and IMMA respectively, across the two venues as a single exhibition. An Gailearaí Gaoth Dobhair will present a further exhibition of Scott's work from the Taylor Gallery Dublin. 'Patrick Scott: Image Space Light' is the most comprehensive representation of this remarkable artist's 75 year-long career ever shown. The exhibition at VISUAL and IMMA brought together more than 100 pieces that illustrated the breadth and longevity of his career as an architect, designer and artist. The Glebe will display Scott's early works from the 1940s to the early 70s while the exhibition at the RCC concentrates on works from the 1960s to the present. The focus at the RCC is on Scott's mature style epitomised by his iconic gold leaf paintings. It will also feature a number of tapestries mainly from the late 70s and a series of ash tables from the early 90s.

Declan Doherty is best known locally as a press photographer with the Donegal News where he has worked for the past 30 years. Declan has also undertaken a significant number of photography commissions with the Regional Cultural Centre and its predecessor Letterkenny Arts Centre. Projects have included 'Letterkenny Ones', 'Swilly Bus and Railway', 'RCC Construction', 'Destination Donegal' and 'Local People'. 'Declan Doherty: Donegal Photographs' is a retrospective exhibition featuring a selection of both press and project images. It illustrates his considerable feel as a portrait photographer and also a sophisticated visual sense when applied to landscapes and almost abstract close ups.

OFFICIAL LAUNCH SUNDAY 27TH JULY, 3PM
EVERYONE WELCOME

Jeffry's House by totobArk, who are Dublin based architect Thomas O'Brien and Donegal artist Emily Mannion, is a folly made from thatch on a wooden frame, named after Jeffry's Lough, a little known lake in Ards Forest Park. The folly is a place of shelter, to sit in and look out to the mouth of the bay. This is the first architectural commission in a forest in Ireland and the vision is to demonstrate the exciting potential of asking architects to respond to an invitation to create unique interventions in the natural landscape. The project is commissioned by Donegal County Council in partnership with Coillte who own the park and the Irish Architecture Foundation who managed the competition.

All Ages

"O'Brien and Mannion created the potential for a magical conversation between the folly, the landscape and the public."

READING FROM 'A YEAR OF FESTIVALS IN IRELAND' BY THE AUTHOR MARK GRAHAM.

LETTERKENNY, DONEGAL COUNTY MUSEUM

Festival Heads is a visual representation of Mark Graham's quest to attend three festivals in Ireland every week for an entire year. At many festivals and events the cameras usually point towards the acts, installations and attractions; Festival Heads focuses on the most important festival ingredient, the thing that adds colour, dynamic and life to all events – the audience. During his 12 months on the road Mark attended 183 festivals and found the common denominator shared among them all was a generosity, vivacity, wealth of character and readiness to laugh displayed by the heads who attended them. The photographs in this exhibition and his book "A Year of Festivals in Ireland" celebrate the spirit and spark of divilment that make Irish festivals unique.

Poland has a long tradition of excellence in the recorded image. Graduates of the world renowned film school in Lodz include Roman Polanski and Andrzej Wajda while the country has produced renowned stills photographers like Andrzej Jerzy Lech and Andrzej Majewski. As a nation, the Poles collectively display an affinity for the medium that seems almost innate.

Through a Polish Lens is an exhibition of the work of 5 Polish photographers who have made the North West of Ireland their home.

Kamil Krolak is an award winning photographer and film maker whose creative production company Kamilfilms is based in Galway.

Patryk Sadowski is an accomplished photographer residing in Derry. Among many notable photographs his images of the Milky Way featured on the cover of BBC Stargazing Live's Star Guide for 2013.

Joining them in exhibiting their work will be Sabina Blaszcok, Maciej Wysocki and Agata Szarek. Together they explore the differences and similarities of the North West of Ireland when viewed through a Polish Lens.
