

Team Gortahork Wins Youthreach 2014 Masterchef Final!

On 16 October the annual Youthreach Masterchef final took place in Letterkenny Youthreach centre. Teams of two from each centre competed to create a main course and dessert on a budget of €20. The final was judged by Donegal ETB Education Officer Anne McHugh and Highland Radio Breakfast Show DJ John Breslin. The winning dishes, made by the team from Gortahork (Rosin Duggan and Sinead Doran), were fancy fish and chips with chunky pea puree and homemade tartare sauce, followed by French chocolate pecan torte. The Bunrana team (James Leidham and Craig Brogan) were runners up with their baked salmon with cashew nut stuffing and lemon sauce, followed by wild berry and white chocolate bread and butter pudding. The other teams were Alan McBrearty & Chelsea Duffy (Ballyshannon) who made lamb cutlets and a selection of vegetables, followed by carrot and walnut cake; Shaun Callaghan and Aine Mc Laughlin (Glengad) who made chicken in a bacon and mushroom sauce with savoury rice, followed by mint aero cheese cake; Ryan Gormley and Shane Valentine (Letterkenny) who made Thai Green Chicken Curry, followed by Banoffee Pie and Aine McMahan and Josh Mc Bride (Lifford) who made fit n' healthy fish goujons with healthy fries, pea puree and salad, followed by chocolate sponge cake and ice cream.
