

Mulroy College Choir.

The choir are a mixed voice choir of male and female students from First to Sixth year. Although singing is a relatively new phenomenon for Junior students they are embracing the opportunity to sing and harmonize together. Mulroy College choir rehearse during lunch three times a week. The choir have a busy schedule during term time, as well as choral competitions the choir perform at school functions, school masses and for community events. The choir enjoy singing all genres of music in particular contemporary pop music. The choir is limited to 50 students for choral competitions but rises to near 80 students for the annual carol singing outing!

Mulroy College Choir are in great singing form having recently participated in the Derry International Choral Festival and Sligo International Choral Festival. The choir took much delight in performing two contrasting part songs in the Three/Four Part competition. There was great fun in the 'Big Sing' workshops that took place at each festival and the choir came away energized! Conductor Karen Patton was so proud of the performances at each festival after the hard work from all the choir members.

Catch Mulroy College Choir next on their Carol Singing Tour in Letterkenny Courtyard Shopping Centre on Friday 5th & Friday 12th December from 1pm - 3pm each afternoon. The choir will be carol singing for the festive season in aid of St. Vincent De Paul.
